

TEXAS HOMESCHOOL HIGH SCHOOL BOWLING TOURNAMENT

CONSENT AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY

For and in consideration of my son/daughter's participation on the High School Bowling Tournament, the undersigned parent/guardian agrees as follows:

1. I and my son/daughter consent to my son/daughter's participation.
2. I and my son/daughter assume any and all risk, known and unknown, associated with such activity including transportation to and from the events and practices.
3. I understand that my son/daughter's participation on the Texas Homeschool High School Bowling Tournament involves the risk of injury to my son/daughter, whether caused by my son/daughter or something or someone else. In consideration for being allowed to participate in this activity I and/my son/daughter (Releasing Parties) agree that Texas Home Educators, its employees/representatives, coaches and related organizations; the sponsoring bowling center and Texas Bowling Centers Association; and all adult leaders (Released Parties) will not be liable for any injury, including, without limitation, bodily or emotional injury, loss or damage of any kind to my son/daughter or myself, and Releasing Parties release the Released Parties of and from any and all liability from this activity resulting from the negligence, strict liability or other fault of Released Parties and covenant not to sue Released Parties in the event of any injury or loss associated with my son/daughter's participation in the Texas Homeschool High School Bowling Tournament.
4. I authorize the designated person in authority to approve and authorize emergency medical treatment to my child in the absence of the parent/guardian should it become necessary.
- 5. I understand that the Texas Homeschool High School Bowling Tournaments requires that all students be academically eligible, in compliance with the homeschool laws of Texas according to Leeper vs Arlington, in order to compete in this competition. I further understand that using ineligible bowlers may result in my child's team being disqualified from this event with no refund being given and prohibited from participating in this event in the future.

I have read and understand this document and voluntarily enter into it.
